

Ministerial Circular
No. (7/2014)

Further to Ministerial Circular No. (8/2010) issued on 20th June 2010 regarding dealing with land applications after the applicant's death, which states that the application shall be cancelled by the death of the applicant as it is personal and may not be inherited as long as the death occurs before the land draw, and due to the fact that some citizens who draw on lands prior to their death, the land allocated in such cases shall be registered in the name of the heirs of the applicant who have not attained the age of majority yet; i. e. minors only. The granted land shall not be deemed as a previous grant due to their social circumstances.

In the absence of minor heirs, the land shall be registered in the name of the heir if he/she is the only heir or if other heirs conceded their right to one of them according to the terms of eligibility, including non-depletion of his/her right of grant, and it shall be registered in the heir's name as a grant from the State.
